Parables Course a Great Success

Faithworks' first (5-week) evening course, "Parables: Are They What You Think They Are?," began on September 21, led by Rev. Alistair McBride. We were thrilled with the large enrollment (32) and thoughtful participation of class members. We explored audiences, meanings, and contexts of selected parables and their relevance for us today.

What's 'In the Works'?

 The leadership team is planning a mini-retreat in November to assess our first full year and make plans for the new year. *These plans include:

 A 'Taste and See' opening event in January to introduce 2027 plans. It will culminate in our first 'theological café,' where we will be nourished by good food, a speaker on a topic of interest, and engagement in lively conversation around our tables of fellowship. (Date & details coming soon.)

 We're looking for a small team to guide the development of Faithworks-Youth (focused on the performing arts). We have just received a 'seed money' gift for FW-Youth, and we are inviting other churches or individuals to do likewise to support our youth initiatives.
